(Rewrite) [+3] Show that $p \Rightarrow (q \Rightarrow p)$ is a tautology; that is, the expression always evaluates to True, regardless of the truth values of p and q.